MEDIA RELEASE

Sensational Start to Spring

The first day of spring will be celebrated with an exciting event at St Luke's inaugural Celebration Creation Day, Saturday 1st September, 8am-2pm.

St Luke's will become a hive of activity with displays, market stalls, music and more.

In the church, visitors can view displays from various local and nearby groups that have an environmental concern at their core, including Wattamurra Farm and Serendipity Farm Animal Centre, and the church's own AngliGreen group. Serendipity Farm will also be bringing a few furry friends for the kids to meet.

In the hall and on the lawns, visitors can spend time browsing the Toowoomba Handmade Markets accompanied by talented singer, Kerry-anne. There will be jewellery, paper craft, wooden toys, gourmet food, and so much more on offer. Wattamurra Farms will also be selling some fresh produce on the lawns.

"The first of September is an important day in the Anglican Church", explained Rev'd Dr Jonathan Inkpin, Rector of the Anglican Parish of St Luke.

"Not only is it the first day of spring, something most of us are currently yearning for, it also marks the start of the 'Season of Creation' in our church calendar."

This will be a great family day out with refreshments and a barbeque lunch available.

The displays will remain in the Church for two weeks to enable a larger number of visitors to view them.
